

LES SOURCES DE CAUDALIE
BORDEAUX

Press release
October 2017

Take a walk on the wild side

Since July, Château Smith Haut Lafitte's woods have no reason to envy the legendary Brocéliande's forest. It is now living woods that welcome visitors for a 2-hour walk in the middle of contemporary works of art in perfect harmony with nature.

The woods surrounding Les Sources de Caudalie are a true place of expression. They now welcome pieces of art from young and local artists. Some of their creations live in total communion with the environment while others are in real creative contradiction.

This walk will lead the strollers in the heart of an artistic, esthetic and poetic path which will heightened their five senses. From touch to smell, passing by the view, the hearing and of course taste, the exposed pieces will aroused the curiosity of the ramblers. Here the Sounds' Island, there the Vortex or the Paradoxical Injunctions, a lot of creations which help the immersion to become total. Senses are needed all along the walk, through contact with nature in the utmost respect for the environment.

To conclude this charming walk, a wine tasting is offered at the end of the path for the adults while the small ones will have the opportunity to become master chiefs of grape juices. And, who knows, the luckiest ones may have the occasion to glimpse some of the fairies who look after this 5 Senses Forest.
