

LES SOURCES DE CAUDALIE
BORDEAUX

Press release
July 2018

From vine to wine

As summer break ends, the effervescence is growing up into the vineyards. At Les Sources de Caudalie, the hotel is keen to share with its guests its environment and a lot of activities are offered to take part to the annual harvests. Something to enjoy a little more the Indian Summer while discovering one of the most ancient agricultural tradition.

It is well known that vine is at its best at the beginning of September. Indeed, the soft arrival of the Autumn turns the vineyards into a red and yellow field and toll the bells for the precious berries saturated with the Summer sun. A particular moment to live, of course, at Les Sources de Caudalie in September and October.

From September 19th to October 31st, the hotel will indeed live more than ever on the vineyards rhythms. With the In the Wine-maker's Footsteps stay, the most curious will enjoy a 2-night and 2-day stay to learn the most about vine, vineyards and wine. For the occasion, special menu will be served in the restaurants in order to be in the grape picker shoes. A grape picker's stave at Rouge, a special grape picker menu in the country-inn La Table du Lavoir and always a gastronomic tasting in 5 or 7 steps in the 2-Michelin star restaurant La Grand'Vigne. Everything to build up some strength before guests improvise themselves as grape picker during a immersive workshop at Château Smith Haut Lafitte. There, they will discover the production's secrets of the Grands Crus Classés of Château Smith Haut Lafitte

And to reward the hard workers, Les Sources de Caudalie offer of course a great comfort moment during a wine tasting. Three wines from the property will be presented in order to better appreciate their labor and enjoy all the benefits from vine... to wine!
